HAPPENINGS IN VERMONT

Summer, who have been in Rutland for the past few days, have returned. Katherine, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herbert of Washington street, who has been ill for some time, was taken by its mother Tuesday morning to the Fanny Allen hospital for treatment. William Duckett, who has been confined to the house for the past two days, has so far recovered as to be able to resume his duties at L. J. Gorman & Son's store. L. J. Yeaw will move his family, who have resided on Weybridge street for the past few months, to Rutland sometime the first part of February. Mr. Yeaw has secured a position with a large marble company.

Colonel and Mrs. E. H. Bailey have gone to New York for a week. The ladies of the Century club will meet with Mrs. E. H. Martin Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. W. W. Chalmers, who has been visiting relatives in Pittsburg, Mass., has returned. Mrs. Sumner, who has been at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. K. Moore and Mrs. Charles Wheeler, for the past few weeks, has returned to Randolph. Deputy High Chief Ranger George Kidder has returned from Brandon, where he installed the offices of the Catholic Order of Foresters at that place on Tuesday evening. "The Rivals" will be presented at the town hall on the evening of Wednesday's birthday, under the auspices of the Athletic association of Middlebury college. Nelson McHugh who has his feet badly burned Sunday, is slowly improving. Thomas Dewey, who has been ill the past few weeks, is able to be about. The annual banquet and ball of the Father Day Council, Knights of Columbus, will be held in the town hall Wednesday evening. Lovett's orchestra of Middlebury furnished the music and George T. Kidder served the banquet.

The V. M. C. A. basketball team will meet the Middlebury team at the Weybridge street gymnasium Saturday evening. Charles H. Bain, commander of William P. Russell Post, G. A. R., No. 8, of Middlebury, started Tuesday to visit relatives in different places in Kansas. Wednesday was the last day for sending in proposals to the postoffice officials in Boston for a new postoffice in Middlebury. The proposals include light, heat and at
